STUDIOS

Hello, and welcome to Dance Lab Studios.

For those of you who may have missed the announcement at the Evening performance of ‘Worlds United’. I am the new owner and director of Dance Lab.

I wanted to take this opportunity to first congratulate our beautiful students on a very successful year and magnificent concert. Also, to introduce myself and let you know a little about me.

Originally from Sydney, I have been training since the age of 4 in all styles of dance. I was accepted into Newtown High School of the Performing Arts, the leading performing arts high school in Australia, then went on to complete my Certificate 4 at Brent Street. My time at Brent Street earned me a place with Sydney’s top dance agency.

I worked as a professional dancer for 6 years dancing behind stars such as Kylie Minogue, Marcia Heinz and Chris Isaac, as well as touring with children's entertainment shows The Powerpuff Girls and The Noddy Show. Soon after, I found my true love back in the class room teaching and sharing my knowledge with my students.

In 2006 I opened Dance Chora Randwick with 20 students. Over 12 years we built our school to be one of the most reputable in the eastern suburbs and to house over 300 students.

After the birth of my second baby, Sage, I decided to sell Dance Chora and move to Byron Bay to be closer to family and join the team at Dance Lab. From my first day I felt the fire reignite in my belly. I was inspired. I admired the passion, dedication and potential in the students and felt immediately excited about what I could bring to the table.

My long term goal is to create a performing arts centre equivalent to the schools you find in the city. Somewhere all children and young adults can learn the art of dance, performance and to realise their dreams.

I believe in an all inclusive dance school where students feel supported, nurtured and a part of a community. From experience, I know that this is the environment that will allow young performers to thrive.

Thank you for your kind words and for making me feel so welcome. I cannot wait to start working with the students of Dance Lab Studios and to see what the future holds for us.

Our new website will go live on Monday 9th of December where you will find our 2020 timetable and enrolment information. All students must re enrol to secure their place.

Enjoy navigating and I look forward to seeing you all next year!

Merry Christmas!

Amy
